

PROXIMITY TO MARKETS

The City of Kelowna is the largest city in the Central Okanagan and the major centre for trade and commerce. Convenient access from the valley to strategic markets is essential to the area's diverse industrial base, tourism, agriculture and forestry industries. A number of highways lead to and from the area and extensive air access is available through Kelowna International Airport.

Distance in km from Kelowna to:

| City | Distance (km) | City | Distance (km) |
|-----------|---------------|----------------|---------------|
| Vancouver | 457 | Salt Lake City | 1,614 |
| Seattle | 579 | San Francisco | 1,872 |
| Calgary | 612 | Winnipeg | 1,970 |
| Portland | 826 | Los Angeles | 2,494 |
| Saskatoon | 1,233 | Denver | 3,215 |